EXTREME ENTREPRENEURS VISIT San Joaquin Delta College
Students Turn to Entrepreneurship to Create Lives of Passion, Purpose, and Prosperity

Stockton, CA. October 2009 – The entrepreneurial spirit of America is alive and well, and poised to take Stockton’s youth by storm on November 10. On that date, The Extreme Entrepreneurship Tour - the first-ever collegiate entrepreneur tour – will be visiting the San Joaquin Delta College campus. Delta College is committed to helping its students and members of the community succeed in the changing economy, and all are invited to take part in the day’s events, which begin at 3 pm and end at 7 pm and will be held at Delta College’s Atherton Auditorium.

The Extreme Entrepreneurship Tour is presented by VenturePort.org and sponsored by Inc. Magazine. Founded by award-winning 25-year-olds, Michael Simmons and Sheena Lindahl of Extreme Entrepreneurship Education, the tour is comprised of many of America’s top young entrepreneurs who’ve made, earned, or sold a company for millions and/or made a huge impact before the age of 30! The vision of the tour is for all of America’s students to graduate with an entrepreneurial mindset.

This event will provide inspiration and practical advice. Emerging entrepreneurs and students of all disciplines are invited to attend to learn how they can apply the entrepreneurial mindset to their lives regardless of career choice.

Delta College’s Business Division and the Northeastern California Small Business Development Center (SBDC) are sponsors of the program.

To register for the day’s events, visit www.extremetour.org and go to the San Joaquin Delta College link on the EET tour calendar to register. The event is FREE to all participants. Registration is required.
